Project Description:

An english investor acquired a vacant 70s office block as part of a logistics complex in Hamburg-Wandsbek with the plan to revitalise and market the location.

RBA was commissioned with all phases of the planning to handover. The location of the property resulted in the need to create a marketing suite to improve the attractiveness to potential tenants.

RBA worked together with internationally operating estate agents to achieve the client's aims within a fixed budget and according to German construction legislation.
